RICKY ALLAN

SUN 4th MARCH 2018 7:30pm
TYERS HALL, TYERS

(please arrive by 7.15pm)

Ricky Allan is a solo Piedmont blues guitar player, singer, songwriter and musical educator from Gippsland. He plays with a lyrical and refined fingerstyle guitar technique and sings with a pure warmth unique in the field of blues. Ricky performs a mix of both traditional songs from as early as the 1920s, as well as his own original Piedmont inspired, heartfelt songs.

Latrobe Performing Arts is offering a guitar workshop presented by both Ziggy and Miles Johnston, Sunday 8 April at 11am (approx. 1 hour). The workshop is an opportunity for guitar students aged 12 -20 years of age and all levels of experience are encouraged to participate. (Teachers are welcome to attend and observe)

Ziggy and Miles Johnston (The Melbourne Recital Centre)

Internationally award-winning duo, Ziggy and Miles Johnston have been playing guitar together since they first started their study of the instrument at age 4. From an early age Miles and Ziggy entered many Guitar Eisteddfods in both solo and duet categories, earning themselves many prizes. As a duet, they were awarded 3rd place in the 2017 Guitar Foundation of America International Ensemble Artist Competition. Miles has won first place in the 2015 Melbourne Recital Centre Bach Competition and second place in the 2016 Adelaide International Guitar Festival Competition while Ziggy received second place in the 2015 and 2016 Melbourne Recital Centre Romantics Competition.

*The Sweet Soiree Subscription is curated by The Melbourne Recital Centre

All participants are asked to bring along their instruments and piece of music to work on and present within the group.
