Dr Crask and His Swingin' Elixir

SUN 5th AUGUST 2018 7:30pm
TYERS HALL, TYERS

Whatever ails you, a dose of Dr Crask and his Swingin' Elixir is guaranteed to get you on your feet. Playing swing tunes predominantly of the 30's and 40's, the Swingin' Elixir kicks out the dancing tunes with the originally American dance 'Lindy Hop' in mind. The Lindy Hop is a fusion of dance styles including jazz, tap, Charleston and swing. Silky smooth vocals combine with rhythm and horn section to create that lovely LITTLE BIG BAND sound.

You'll hear songs that were performed by the likes of Fats Waller, Duke Ellington, Count Basie, Ella Fitzgerald and Louis Prima just to name a few.

Support Act: "Gippsapella" (GAMC's very own Acapella choir)

Club Night Entry: As this is one of our four Café Culture Series Concerts, many will have already purchased a season ticket, but if not:

About the workshop leaders:

Sue and Wendy met through community music in 2010 and have continued to share their love of music, not only through singing leading, but also with their acapella group "Acoustic Kitchen", of which they were founding members 6 years ago.

They form a dynamic duo when leading together and with the emphasis on fun, harmony and a really good sing, it's guaranteed you'll have a great time!!

7pm - 9.30pm: Acapella Festival Concert

The Festival Concert provides the opportunity to enjoy the talents of singing groups and choirs from Gippsland and beyond.

Workshop participants will be invited to perform in the finale of the Concert.
