

TIM WOODZ

SUN 1st SEPT 2019 2.00pm* TYERS HALL, TYERS

Tim Woodz is a storytelling folk singer with a quirky narrative who has won the Maldon Minstrel award and toured with iconic performer Tex Perkins. Tim grew up in Churchill and developed his love of folk songs and musical style from attending the Gippsland Acoustic Music Club's monthly events and folk festivals as a teenager. His songwriting is spontaneous, energetic and warm, often about things that you wouldn't think to write about, from possums on powerlines to Melbourne's Westgate bridge to backyard cricket. Lyrically he's able to spark nostalgic and charming imagery with his innocently styled song tall trees. Tim Woodz is trained musician and natural performer and a bit of goof. He brings all this together for a unique experience with well-crafted songwriting.

"I always love seeing Tim play, if I'm not smiling before he's hit the stage, I definitely am once he's finished. And booking him for a support slot is always super easy because he's a professional, easy-going dude with a lot of music to share with the world." - Xani Kolac The Twoks/Violin extraordinaire

"Tim is a true champion" - Ashley Naylor, Even/Rockwiz

Acknowledgements:

- Jane Coker's Choir sings "Tall Trees" and they love it

*please note the unusually early start-time of 2pm.

It's a club afternoon rather than the usual clubnight, so it won't clash with fathers' day dinners. Maybe bring Dad along as a fathers' day treat.

Support Act: Grey St Primary School Grade 3&4 Xylophone Group (after a recent fantastic performance at Latrobe Performing Arts Centre and soon to also perform in the Latrobe Valley Eisteddfod).

Here they are in action at last week's rehearsal

Entry: $20 adult, $15 member/ concession, under 18 free.

Members please bring a plate of supper to share

Please note: there is no "Vocal Nosh" session prior to this month's clubnight afternoon ... but hopefully your vocal chords have had a good workout at the recent Acapella Festival.

Vanuatu Music Program Seeking Donations of Recorders and Violins

GAMC member Kim Carroll is helping to promote the following music program scheduled to take place in Vanuatu next February:

Brisbane based musician / tutor of fiddle / band member Melinda Coles, together with a group of volunteers, is planning their next trip to Vanuatu in order to conduct music programs in schools & other community venues.....all in order to share the love of music. Melinda has run similar programs there in the past, which have been greatly appreciated by those in Vanuatu who were able to be involved. As part of each trip, they try to take about 300 recorders and at least 6 small violins to donate to schools and communities. Apparently recorders can be purchased online for $1.75 each. If you would like to help by donating an instrument(s), or need further info, please contact Kim on 0439 484 036
