Dan Musil & Beau Atkinson

7.30pm Sunday 5th March 2023 at Tyers Hall, Tyers

*if travelling from Traralgon, allow more time to detour since Traralgon -Tyers bridge is still closed

We're glad to announce that Dan and Beau are returning to perform at GAMC, back by popular demand.

Local string-slingers, Dan Musil plays slide guitar like no one else, and Beau Atkinson plays guitar like a man-possessed.

With a shared love of improvising and genre-bending, together they blues-up traditional Celtic tunes, funk-up favourite singalongs, and share from a magic bag of original songs & tunes.

Are you interested in singing with Latrobe Chorale?

(perhaps you were inspired by their performance at the GAMC November clubnight!)

The Latrobe Chorale is resuming rehearsals on Tuesdays evenings at 7:15 for a 7:30pm start. We will be learning Karl Jenkins Te Deum and the Cherubini Requiem in C minor. The Jenkins piece is rather vibrant and it may suit your members if they want to be a part of a SATB choir, we particularly need more tenors and altos. We have grant funding from both FRRR and Delburn Wind Farm and will be running workshops during the year. Joel Dickason is our Musical Director and Heather James is our pianist. Any queries can be directed to me.
