Lucy Wise Duo

Sun 15th Nov 2026

7.30pm

Tyers Hall, Tyers

Contrary to advice in earlier newsletters, this will be at our usual venue Tyers Hall as the hall has become available for this date.
Note also, that it's later in the month, to avoid clashing with Tyers Art show & set up.

Award-winning songwriter, Lucy Wise creates music that gently opens a door you didn't realise was closed. Blending contemporary folk with pop-inflected melodies, intricate guitar work and poetic lyricism, her songs make space for reflection on longing, connection and the inner lives we carry. Lucy's songwriting is rich with imagery and insight, often articulating experiences that are deeply felt but rarely spoken. Her warm presence and storytelling create a sense of shared experience between artist and audience.

Originally from South West Australia and now based in Central Victoria, Lucy has toured extensively across Australia, New Zealand, the UK and the US, and appeared at festivals including Woodford, Port Fairy and the National Folk Festival. By late 2026, she will have released five albums and two EPs, including her fifth album Salt (out 17 Sept 2026). Her work has earned multiple accolades, including Solo Artist of the Year at the 2024 Australian Folk Music Awards.

This concert forms part of Lucy's East Coast Australian tour of her new album, Salt. For this intimate concert, Lucy will be joined by Melbourne-based bassist Isaac Gunnoo. Lucy and Isaac weave a vibrant soundscape for Lucy's songs, combining warm vocals, guitar, double bass and vocal harmonies. An evening of fine acoustic music not to be missed!
